

"My main job in life? Get it first." - Joy Metcalfe

Joy's Bio

Joy Metcalfe isn't really everywhere, it just seems that way. Openings, premieres, interviews, news conferences, celebrity sightings...it's fast-paced, energetic, and effusive, like Joy herself.

Joy's Journal for the week of March 26th 2007...

Last Thursday evening at the Jennifer Kostuik Gallery on South Granville, noted philanthropist and chair of UNICEF Canada's Unite for Children, Unite Against Aids campaign, Alison Lawton, welcomed Swanee Hunt, the American political trailblazer, hosting a reception in honour of Swanee's recently published autobiography, Half-Life of a Zealot. Joining Alison and Swanee was Sen. Mobina Jaffer, the first female Indo-Canadian lawyer in B.C. and the first in the Canadian senate. Swanee had flown in that very afternoon from discussions in the former Soviet Union and bedded down at Steve Halliday's Pan Pacific.

Some 115 guests sampled delectable wine and hors d'oeuvres from Culinary Capers while enjoying the magnificent stylings of the internationally renowned violinist, Rosemary Siemens, who has recently returned from Miami where she was performing Swan Lake.

The women were also here to attend the Brussels-based International Crisis Group's board meeting which took place at the Pan Pacific this past weekend with such prominent dignitaries as Christopher Patten, the former Governor of Hong Kong, former Canadian Prime Minister Kim Campbell, Maria Livanos Cattai, the Hon. Gareth Evans of Australia, Joschka Fischer and George Soros...
